ON THE COVER

MARS RHINO BEETLE

One of the only crafted Diamond-tier beetles. You'll need a Black Lotus, a Sabertooth Longhorn and a Sunset Moth, which means most of this magazine. Route on page 17.

SUNSET MOTH · P.22

WELCOME TO THE SWARM

Somewhere on RemiliaNET, a tiny blue console is waiting for you to load a cartridge. It looks like a toy. It plays like a toy. Then you smash your first beetle into a flower, watch your hammer shatter, and realize the toy has a crafting tree deeper than most "real" games.

That tree is the reason this issue exists. When BeetleCraft arrived on Christmas Eve 2025, Remilia shipped it with one instruction: the recipes are "unrecorded and unsaved." No crafting book, no wiki link, no tooltips that spoil anything. You discover it, or you don't.

So players did. A community wiki appeared the next day. Spreadsheets followed, then fan-made front ends, then arguments about whether purple beetles make better sacrifices than green ones. (They might. Keep reading.)

This issue collects all of it in one place: what the game's own code shows, what Remilia has said in its update notes, and what the community has pieced together through hundreds of sacrificed Griggers. Where those sources disagree, or where something is only a rumor, the colored badges explained on the right flag it.

New to the bench? Page 30 is a rookie game plan: ten moves that take a fresh BeetleCrafter from a pile of litter to a hammer, a key, an unlocked third slot and a first trophy.

Grab your cheese. Load the cartridge. Mind the hammer.

FEATURE

INSIDE THE BEETLEBOY

BeetleBoy is a pretend handheld console: one screen, one ID card, and three swappable cartridges. These are the real control strips, captured live from the game. Item areas are blanked out, since every player's bag is different. OBSERVED

HOW TO LOAD A CARTRIDGE

1. Use the arrow buttons under the console to pick a cartridge. 2. Pull its LOAD lever to connect it. 3. Pull it again to eject before switching. The big screen plays each cartridge's own animations, and your ID card sits top-right.

CARTRIDGE 1 · ENCOUNTER MODULE

- Claim Beetle: one free beetle every hour, on the hour.
- Hunt Beetle: costs 20 cheese and can come up empty.
- Inventory: your items, with counts. Cheese sits top-left.
- More: flips to the next page of items.
- Load lever: connects or ejects the cartridge.
- Screen: plays the forest scene and catch animations.

CARTRIDGE 2 · UBC MODULE

- Claim Cheese: your daily cheese, with a streak bonus.
- Message screen: shows your cheese total and game chatter.
- The Cheeseman: click him ten times for a free piece of junk once a day. Otherwise he dispenses “wisdom.”
- Load lever: same as every cartridge.

CARTRIDGE 3 · BEETLECRAFT

- Four squares: crafting slots. The padlocked one is slot 3.
- Hammer rack: one slot per hammer tier, Tin to Diamond.
- Hammer & beetle slots: your hammer and your sacrifice (Smash mode only).
- Big button: reads SMASH or ASSEMBLE for the current mode.
- Toggle: slide to switch between Assemble and Smash.
- Item tiles: drag them into slots, or click to select.

STRATEGY CARTRIDGE 1

GOTTA CATCH 'EM... HOURLY

The Encounter module is where every collection starts. Two buttons, two very different deals.

CLAIM: THE FREE ONE

Press CLAIM BEETLE and you get one guaranteed beetle, no cheese required. OFFICIAL The timer resets at the top of every hour, UTC, not 60 minutes after you press it. In the live game, the cooldown runs out at exactly the top of the hour. OBSERVED So a claim at 3:59 and another at 4:00 is perfectly legal.

Early documentation describes a two-hour claim timer. The live game now says "hourly," and so does the countdown.

HUNT: THE PAID ONE

HUNT BEETLE costs 20 cheese and is not guaranteed. Sometimes the screen just says

SORRY... YOU COULDN'T FIND ANY BEETLES THIS TIME...

OFFICIAL

Hunts use charges. You have three, each hunt adds 30 minutes to a shared cooldown, and burning all three locks you out for 90 minutes from your last hunt. Partial use regenerates as the timer falls. OFFICIAL

BONUS DROPS

Catches can come with extras: junk, flowers, and occasionally something special. That includes the huntable trinkets (D20 and Deck of Cards) and, since v0.8, the rare Specimen Pin. OFFICIAL The message reads "YOU FOUND A ... AND ...!" followed by your XP.

PITY COUNTERS

Too many Green Beetles in a row? The game notices. A pity counter (v0.2) bumps you up a tier after a long dry streak, and v0.7 split it into separate counters for each rarity tier. The longer you go without a hit, the better your odds. OFFICIAL

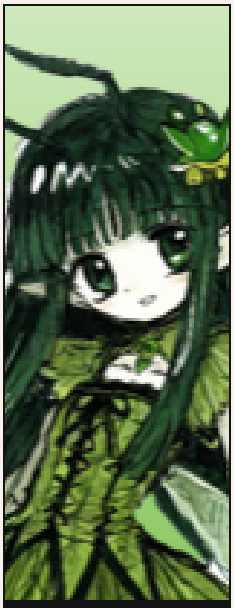
XP & LEVELS

Every catch shows "+N XP." Level [illegible] unlock global chat, but that gate was removed in v0.8. OFFICIAL Observed XP totals fit a neat 1,000 XP per level, but that's not confirmed. UNVERIFIED

BEETLE GIRLS

Each new species you discover unlocks its beetle girl card, drawn oekaki-style in pen and marker. Open the gallery from the console to see your collection. OFFICIAL

LADYBUG



GREEN BEETLE

HUNT MATH

Three charges every 90 minutes is at most 48 hunts a day, or 960 cheese, if you never sleep. The Remilia Wiki estimates 10–15 hunts a day on daily cheese alone. COMMUNITY

CLAIM BEETLE
HUNT BEETLE · 20 CHEESE
NEED 20 CHEESE
HUNT LIMIT REACHED

The four button states you'll see.

STRATEGY CARTRIDGE 2

UNIVERSAL BASIC CHEESE

Cheese is BeetleBoy's only currency, and the UBC module is the mint. Here's how to milk it.

THE DAILY CLAIM

Press the big red CLAIM CHEESE button once a day. The reset is midnight UTC: 8:00 PM Eastern until November 1, then 7:00 PM. OBSERVED Miss the window and the button just tells you to wait.

STREAKS

Claim on consecutive days and the payout climbs. Remilia's wiki puts it at roughly 200–500 cheese a day depending on streak length. COMMUNITY The game also tracks Cheese Shields and flags when your streak is "at risk." Shields appear to protect a streak from one missed day. UNVERIFIED

THE CHEESEMAN

Next to the cheese screen stands a little man holding a wedge. Click him and he says something. Click him ten times and he hands over a free piece of junk, once a day. OFFICIAL This is the junk faucet from v0.7, and it resets with the daily cheese. Come back too early and he tells you how long to wait.

WHY IT MATTERS FOR CRAFTING

The daily cheese reset is also when, players report, your hammers' break chance drops back to zero for one swing. That makes 8 PM the best time for your riskiest smash. COMMUNITY More on page 12.

SPEND IT WISELY

Cheese buys hunts, and hunts buy everything else: beetles, flowers, junk and rare drops. At 20 cheese a hunt, a 400-cheese day is 20 hunts. One full charge cycle (3 hunts) is 60 cheese.

THE CHEESEMAN

Philosopher. Junk dealer. Possibly a loan shark.

COLLECTED WISDOM

- "DID YOU KNOW THAT BEETLES EAT CHEESE?"
- "BEHIND EVERY BEETLE IS A BEETLE GIRL..."
- "THE CHEESE MUST FLOW PROFUSELY"
- "COMING SOON: CHEESE LOANS! 39% APR!"
- "IT AIN'T EASY BEING CHEESY"
- "MOM SAID IT'S MY TURN ON THE BEETLEBOY"
- "LOOK, YOU NEED CHEESE TO HUNT BEETLES, OK?"
- "CHEESE CLAIM RUNS ON UNREAL ENGINE"
- "ARE YOU WINNING, SON?"
- "I CANNOT FEEL LOVE BUT I CAN IMITATE IT"
- "WHAT'S UP BEETLEMANIACS?"
- "EVERY TIME YOU CLICK ME, I KISS YOUR FOREHEAD"

CHEESE PLANNER

400 CHZ = 20 HUNTS

A typical streak day of about 400 cheese buys roughly 20 hunts, around seven full charge cycles. Bank the rest for days when you can hunt nonstop: 48 hunts, the daily maximum, cost 960 cheese.

CHEESE, BY THE NUMBERS

20 per hunt
60 per full charge cycle
~200–500 per daily claim
960 max you can spend in a day
10 clicks for one free junk

COVER STORY

BEETLE! ASSEMBLE! CRAFT! SMASH!

BeetleCraft turned a beetle collection into an economy, with two workbenches, five hammers and a recipe book nobody was allowed to read. Players pieced it together anyway. Here is how it works, what you can lose, and how not to lose it.

> "Just remember, every beetle you accidentally smash to death is on YOU."
> — REMILIA, V0.5 PATCH NOTES

SOURCES: REMILIANET CODE & BLOG, BEETLE.WIKI, BEETLEBOY ADVANCE

PICTURED: SABERTOOTH LONGHORN (LEFT) AND SUNSET MOTH, BOTH CRAFTED ADAMANTINE BEETLES

COVER STORY

TWO BENCHES, ONE RULE: EXPERIMENT

BeetleCraft has two modes on one cartridge. Flip the toggle under the big button to switch between them. They follow very different rules.

	ASSEMBLE	SMASH
WHAT IT'S FOR	Junk, flowers & materials into cubes, pollen, hammers, keys and trinkets.	Beetles, flowers & artifacts into new species and rare materials.
WHAT YOU NEED	2 items (3 once slot 3 is unlocked).	2–3 items, plus a hammer and a sacrifice beetle.
ALLOWED IN SLOTS	Anything except beetles, cheese and unique items.	Beetles, flowers, artifacts, trinkets, Junk Cubes and Tesseracts. No loose junk, hammers, cheese or uniques.
SUCCESS RATE	100% on a valid recipe.	A percentage roll, improved by your hammer's crafting bonus.
WRONG RECIPE	"NOTHING HAPPENED." You lose nothing.	"NOTHING HAPPENED." Your sacrifice beetle is gone.
BAD LUCK	Doesn't happen.	"SMASH FAILED." Sacrifice gone; ingredients come back.
EXTRA RISK	None.	Your hammer can shatter.

Slot rules and messages OFFICIAL come from the game's code. The 100% assemble rate COMMUNITY comes from players.

THE SACRIFICE

Every smash needs a beetle on the altar, and only two species qualify: the Green Beetle and the Purple Beetle. OFFICIAL The sacrifice is spent on every attempt, success or failure. Players believe it isn't part of the recipe itself, but it may affect your odds or even the rarity of the result. COMMUNITY

The developer dropped a hint in chat: "Think about why I let you use either green or purple beetles for sacrifices. A purple beetle IS more rare than a green beetle, after all." One player smashed two Pond Beetles with a Purple sacrifice and got a Goliath; with a Green, a Monarch. UNVERIFIED

SLOT 3

The fourth square has a padlock. Craft a BeetleBoy Key in Assemble (any Bronze flower + a Junk Cube) and drag it onto the lock. COMMUNITY Remilia's only hint was that once it's open, it's open "for both crafting modes and it's unlocked forever." OFFICIAL

DRIVING THE BENCH

Drag tiles into slots, or click to select. You can drag between slots to swap. In Smash mode, click the hammer slot to pick a hammer and the beetle slot to pick a sacrifice. If something's missing, the console flashes the empty slot and tells you: "HAMMER REQUIRED TO SMASH" or "ADD MORE ITEMS TO SMASH." OFFICIAL

THE SACRIFICE ALTAR

Green Beetle (Tin) or Purple Beetle (Bronze). Nothing else fits.

UNLOCK SLOT 3

Bronze flowers: Gallic Rose, St. John's Wort, Milk Thistle, Marigold or Southern Magnolia.

COVER STORY

READING THE TEA LEAVES

Every craft ends with one of four messages. Learn them, because the difference between two of them is the most useful clue in the game. OFFICIAL

SUCCESS

YOU SACRIFICED A GREEN BEETLE AND SMASHED A LADYBUG AND A
JUNK CUBE INTO A MILK THISTLE!

It worked. Ingredients and sacrifice are consumed; the new item lands in your inventory.

INVALID_RECIPE

NOTHING HAPPENED. YOUR GREEN BEETLE IS GONE.

That combination isn't a recipe. In Assemble it costs nothing; in Smash you lose the sacrifice.

UNLUCKY_ROLL

SMASH FAILED. YOUR GREEN BEETLE IS GONE.

The recipe is real, but the dice said no. Your ingredients come back. Try again.

ALREADY_OWNED

YOU ALREADY HAVE THIS ITEM.

You can only hold one of certain items, such as each hammer and each trophy.

"SMASH FAILED" IS GOOD NEWS

IT MEANS THE RECIPE EXISTS. "NOTHING HAPPENED" MEANS IT DOESN'T.

The game tells you whether a recipe is unsuccessful or simply invalid. OFFICIAL Players use this as a free oracle: if a smash fails, you've found a real recipe and only need better luck, a better hammer or a better sacrifice. If nothing happens, move on.

HAMMER WARNINGS

When you pick a hammer, the console shows its current break chance. OFFICIAL

HAMMER BREAK CHANCE: 10%

HAMMER BREAK CHANCE: 55% - HIGH RISK

HAMMER BREAK CHANCE: 80% - CRITICAL!

... YOUR HAMMER SHATTERED!

"High risk" starts at 50%, "Critical" at 75%. A hammer can shatter on a success, too.

WHAT EACH SMASH CAN COST YOU

OUTCOME	SACRIFICE BEETLE	INGREDIENTS	HAMMER
Success	Spent	Turned into the result	May shatter
Smash failed	Spent	Returned	May shatter
Nothing happened	Spent	Kept	May shatter

Assemble mode never costs anything on a wrong guess, so experiment freely there.

THE ORACLE METHOD

TEST CHEAP
Try an unknown smash with a Green sacrifice and your Tin Hammer. Nothing valuable is at risk.

READ THE SCREEN
"Nothing happened"? Log it as a dead end. "Smash failed"? You've found a real recipe.

STACK THE ODDS
Retry real recipes with a Purple, a better hammer and the 8 PM daily reset.

DATABASE

THE SIX TIERS

Since v0.5, every tile and card is color-coded: Junk, Tin, Bronze, Mithril, Adamantine, Diamond. Trinkets and trophies add a pink tier of their own. OFFICIAL

JUNK API rarity 1		Raw material. Two loose junk items of any kind make a Junk Cube.
TIN API rarity 2		The everyday tier: Green Beetles, the commonest flowers, the starter hammer.
BRONZE API rarity 3		Ladybugs and Purples. Bronze flowers make keys and Bronze Pollen.
MITHRIL API rarity 4		The first "real" tier: Pond, Monarch, the special flowers, Nectar and Cattail.
ADAMANTINE API rarity 5		Goliath, Stag, Bombardier, the big artifacts and the Adamantine flowers.
DIAMOND API rarity 6		Golden Scarab, Mars Rhino, Black Lotus, the Diamond Hammer. The endgame.
TROPHY API rarity 7		Trinkets and trophies: pink tiles for your shelf.

TIER BEATS SPECIES

Many recipes care only about the tier. Any two flowers of the same tier make that tier's pollen, and any beetle smashed with a Junk Cube becomes a random flower of its own tier. One player put the same flower with a Monarch and then a Pond Beetle and got the same result both times. COMMUNITY

BUT NOT ALWAYS

Two Cattails (Mithril artifacts) won't make Mithril Pollen, because artifacts aren't flowers. Special beetles like the Cucumber Beetle and Bumble Bee refuse to be transmuted, and Diamond beetles can't go back to flowers at all. COMMUNITY

In the game's internal code the tiers are named Junk, Common, Uncommon, Rare, Super Rare, Ultra Rare and Trophy, the same seven levels under different names. OFFICIAL

CLIMBING THE LADDER

FROM → TO	THE RELIABLE WAY	THE GAMBLE
Bronze → Mithril	Bronze beetle + Bronze Pollen → Nectar or Cattail; add a Ladybug → Monarch or Pond	2 Bronze beetles or flowers, smashed
Mithril → Adamantine	Mithril beetle + Mithril Pollen → Pinecone, Moss or Gunpowder; add a Pond → Goliath, Stag or Bombardier	2 Mithril beetles or flowers
Adamantine → Diamond	Gunpowder + Moss + Pinecone → Black Lotus; plus Sabertooth + Sunset Moth → Mars Rhino	2 Adamantine beetles or flowers
Beetle → flower	Any beetle + Junk Cube → random flower of the same tier	—

STRATEGY

HAMMER TIME

No hammer, no smash. Here are all five, ranked, and the rules for keeping them in one piece.

HAMMER	RECIPE (ASSEMBLE)	BONUS	BASE BREAK	VERDICT	GRADE
TIN (TIN)	JUNK CUBE + JUNK CUBE	+0%	10%	The starter. Cheap to replace, so it's the go-to hammer for low-stakes smashes.	C
BRONZE (BRONZE)	TIN + TIN + TIN	+5%	5%	A small bonus and half the wear. A solid daily driver.	B
MITHRIL (MITHRIL)	BRONZE + MITHRIL + MITHRIL	+20%	10%	A big bonus jump, but wear climbs back to 10%. Upgrade before it gets hot.	B+
ADAMANTINE (ADAMANTINE)	MITHRIL + ADAMANTINE + ADAMANTINE	+35%	2%	Barely wears. Reported to rise to about 5% after first use.	A
DIAMOND (DIAMOND)	ADAMANTINE + DIAMOND + DIAMOND	+90%	1%	"Strangely warm to the touch." The biggest crafting bonus in the game; about 9% after first use.	S

Recipes and stats COMMUNITY. Upgrades need slot 3, because each one is a three-item recipe.

HOW WEAR WORKS

Each hammer has a base break chance, a crafting bonus, and a current break chance that starts at 0% and climbs with every swing. Players think each smash adds roughly the base chance plus a recipe-specific amount. COMMUNITY The game keeps these numbers as break_rate, base_break_rate, craft_count and craft_bonus. OFFICIAL

ONE OF EACH

You can own one hammer of each tier at the same time, but never two of the same. Crafting a duplicate gets you "YOU ALREADY HAVE THIS ITEM." COMMUNITY

GRACE & THE DAILY RESET

Since v0.7, "hammer durability no longer gets used on the initial grace craft." OFFICIAL Players also report that break chance drops to 0% at the daily cheese reset, then jumps back to its old value after one swing. In practice, that's one free smash per hammer per day. COMMUNITY

UPGRADE BEFORE IT BREAKS

Upgrading resets the break chance. So use a hammer a few times, then fold it into the next tier before it gets risky. Push too far and you lose it, along with every tier below it. COMMUNITY

THE SAFE-SMASH ROUTINE

1. Wait for the daily cheese reset (8 PM ET).
2. Make your riskiest smash first, with a 0% hammer.
3. Use a Purple sacrifice if the recipe is hard.
4. Check the break chance before every swing.
5. Over 50%? Upgrade the hammer or wait until tomorrow.

DIAMOND HAMMER CRAFTING BONUS: +90%

TIN STARTS AT +0%. SOURCE: COMMUNITY TESTING

REROLLS & GAMBLES

+ ANY FLOWER → SAME-TIER FLOWER Same-tier flower ASSEMBLE

e.g. Tesseract + Morning Glory → Camellia; Tesseract + Gazania → Pincushion.

+ → MYSTERY or Mystery / Specimen Pin ASSEMBLE

Usually a Tesseract back. Specimen Pins and a Gallic Rose have also come out.

JUNK CUBES ARE MONEY

Nearly every recipe chain starts with a Junk Cube. Crunch your loose junk early. Every Tesseract is three cubes, so six pieces of litter, and each hammer upgrade eats one Tesseract. Trinkets live on page 19.

SMASH BASICS

Transmutation, tier-ups and artifacts. Every smash also needs a hammer and a Green or Purple sacrifice, which aren't shown here. COMMUNITY

BEETLE → FLOWER TRANSMUTATION

TIN BEETLE + → TIN FLOWER — Tin flower SMASH

Green → e.g. Daisy

BRONZE BEETLE + → BRONZE FLOWER — Bronze flower SMASH

Ladybug → e.g. Milk Thistle

MITHRIL BEETLE + → MITHRIL FLOWER — Mithril flower SMASH

Pond → e.g. Morning Glory

ADAM. BEETLE + → ADAM. FLOWER — Adamantine flower SMASH

Stag → e.g. Pincushion

One-way only: flowers can't be turned back into beetles. Special beetles (Cucumber, Bumble Bee) and Diamond beetles won't transmute.

TIER-UPS (RISKY)

BRONZE BEETLE + BRONZE BEETLE → MITHRIL BEETLE — Mithril beetle SMASH

e.g. 2 Ladybugs → Monarch. Low odds.

BRONZE FLOWER + BRONZE FLOWER → MITHRIL FLOWER — Mithril flower SMASH

e.g. 2 Milk Thistles → Morning Glory. Low odds.

ADAM. BEETLE + ADAM. BEETLE → DIAMOND BEETLE — Diamond beetle SMASH

The same pattern works on every tier, per BeetleBoy Advance.

TIER-UP SURVIVAL GUIDE

Hammers break "really predictably" on tier-ups. Players suggest doing it as your first smash of the day with a 0% hammer, and only once a day across all your hammers. Better still, climb with artifacts instead. COMMUNITY

MAKING ARTIFACTS

BRONZE BEETLE + → or — Nectar / Cattail SMASH

Random: one or the other.

MITHRIL BEETLE + → or or — Pinecone / Moss / Gunpowder SMASH

THE BIG LOOP

Hunt for Ladybugs and Bronze flowers. Bronze pollen turns Ladybugs into Nectar and Cattail, which turn more Ladybugs into Monarchs and Ponds. Ponds become Mithril flowers, so Mithril pollen, so Adamantine artifacts and beetles. Each tier pays for the next.

WHERE TRINKETS FIT

Trinkets branch off the junk and flower lanes: Junk Cubes or Tesseracts plus a pollen make the first five, and those combine into the rest. See the Trophy Room on page 18.

STRATEGY

ROAD TO MARS RHINO

Nine smashes and assemblies stand between you and the one crafted Diamond beetle. Here's the route the community mapped. COMMUNITY

1. OPEN SLOT 3
   Bronze flower + Junk Cube → BeetleBoy Key, then drag it onto the padlock. Mars Rhino, Black Lotus and every hammer upgrade need three slots.

2. FARM MITHRIL BEETLES
   2 Bronze flowers → Bronze Pollen. Ladybug + Bronze Pollen → Nectar or Cattail. Nectar + Ladybug → Monarch; Cattail + Ladybug → Pond.

3. MAKE MITHRIL POLLEN
   Pond or Monarch + Junk Cube → a random Mithril flower. Do it twice, then assemble the pair into Mithril Pollen.

4. ROLL ADAMANTINE ARTIFACTS
   Pond + Mithril Pollen → Pinecone, Moss or Gunpowder, at random. Repeat until you have the ones you need. You'll want extras.

5. RAISE ADAMANTINE BEETLES
   Pinecone + Pond → Goliath. Moss + Pond → Stag. Gunpowder + Pond → Bombardier.

6. GROW ADAMANTINE FLOWERS
   Adamantine beetle + Junk Cube → a random Adamantine flower. You need a Pincushion and a Gazania. Tesseract rerolls can help you land the right one.

7. MAKE THE TWO SPECIALS
   Pincushion + Adamantine beetle → Sabertooth Longhorn. Gazania + Adamantine beetle → Sunset Moth. Use a Purple sacrifice.

8. BLOOM THE BLACK LOTUS
   Gunpowder + Moss + Pinecone → Black Lotus. That's one of each Adamantine artifact.

9. SUMMON THE RHINO
   Black Lotus + Sabertooth Longhorn + Sunset Moth → MARS RHINO BEETLE. Best hammer, Purple sacrifice, first smash of the day.

NAPKIN MATH FROM THE PROTIPS PAGE

One player costed a single Goliath at about 16 Ladybugs, 10 Junk Cubes and 9 Green Beetles, and a full Adamantine Pollen at 32 Ladybugs, 42 junk and a Purple. Budget generously, and bring cheese for hunts. UNVERIFIED

DATABASE

THE TROPHY ROOM

Since v0.7, every profile has a hand-crafted shelf. Fill it with trinkets, trophies and pinned beetles, and everyone who visits sees your best five. OFFICIAL

A dream shelf: Jade Cabbage, Stradivarius, Milady Fumoku, Reminet ID and D20 trophies

TRINKETS VS. TROPHIES

Trinkets are rare, pink-tier items, "each had a profound sentimental meaning to someone, at some point." OFFICIAL Most are crafted in Assemble. The twist: the first time you complete a trinket recipe, you get its Trophy for your shelf. Every later success gives the trinket, which you can feed into higher recipes. COMMUNITY So making your first Jade Cabbage takes two Chinese Coins' worth of work: one coin's trophy, then one coin to spend.

SHELVES

There are 12 shelf materials, and every user got one at random. "No two shelves are quite alike." Your shelf always shows your top five trophies; expand it to see and rearrange the full collection. Remilia says more furniture is coming. OFFICIAL

PINNED SPECIMENS

"There is no greater form of affection for a beautiful specimen than shoving a pin through its torso." Everyone received one free Specimen Pin in v0.7, and since v0.8 they drop rarely from hunts. OFFICIAL Smash a pin with any beetle to mount that species on your shelf. COMMUNITY Rumor says two Tesseracts can also cough one up.

FOUND, NOT MADE

The D20 and Deck of Cards turn up in hunts. Either one plus a Thumb Drive makes the Joystick. The Engraved Lighter's recipe is, in the wiki's words, "GATEKEPT." COMMUNITY Your profile's trophy count includes every trophy you own, not just the five on display (v0.8.1). OFFICIAL

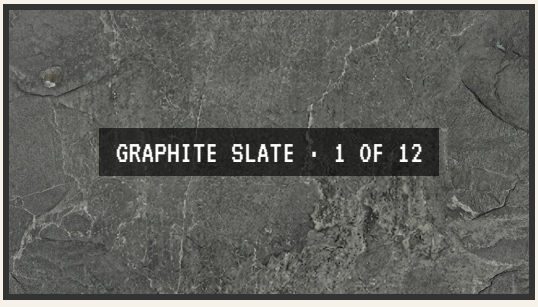
SHELF MATERIALS



Graphite Slate, "a foliated metamorphic stone," is one of the 12 shelf materials. Shelves hold three rows of five. With zero trophies the site draws a cobweb, and clicking the shelf makes it knock and shake. OFFICIAL A Specimen Pin is the quickest fix.

THE TRINKET TREE

All 21, in Assemble mode, and most need slot 3. Tier I uses Junk Cubes or Tesseracts plus a pollen; everything above that combines trinkets. The first success gives the trophy (left), and repeats give the trinket. COMMUNITY

Ordered by tier. Names and art are from the game; recipes COMMUNITY.

GREEN BEETLE — TIN

Chrysolina graminis · Tansy beetle

GET Claim or hunt. The most common catch in the game.

USE Sacrifice fodder; transmutes into a Tin flower; tier-up fuel.

Players call it the Grigger.

LADYBUG — BRONZE

Coccinella septempunctata · Common ladybug

GET Claim or hunt.

USE The key ingredient for Monarch and Pond Beetle; transmutes into a Bronze flower.

PURPLE BEETLE — BRONZE

Chrysolina sturmi · Violet leaf beetle

GET Claim or hunt.

USE The premium sacrifice; Nectar + Purple also makes a Monarch.

Same genus as the Green. The devs say that's no accident.

USE Collection piece. Not craftable.

CANDYCANE TIGER MOTH — DIAMOND

Spilosoma congrua · New Hope tiger moth

GET Catch only, during the December holiday event.

USE Collection piece. Not craftable.

HOLIDAY BEETLES

The Christmas Beetle and Candycane Tiger Moth appear only in December, and Remilia has promised they return each year. The Skull Bug and Black Widow were Halloween 2025's guests. All four are catch-only and can't be crafted. OFFICIAL

Catch them while you can. There's no other way to get one.

NOT IN THE DEX

Fan tools list one more "beetle," Radbro, with no recipe or drop info. It couldn't be confirmed in the live game. UNVERIFIED

Beetle girl art for every species appears in the game's gallery once you've discovered it.

SECRET ACCESS

01 "SMASH FAILED" MEANS YOU'RE CLOSE

The game only says it for real recipes. "Nothing happened" means you guessed wrong. Treat the difference as a free hint. OFFICIAL

02 GRIGGER MAXXING

For a guaranteed recipe you don't need a Purple or a fancy hammer. A Green and a Tin Hammer will get there eventually; it just costs more Griggers and hammers. (Doesn't apply to tier-ups.) COMMUNITY

03 THE DAILY SMASH

Hammer break chance drops to 0% after the daily cheese reset, for one swing. Save your riskiest smash for 8 PM ET. COMMUNITY

04 GRACE CRAFT

A brand-new hammer's first craft doesn't use durability (v0.7). Always swing a new hammer at least once before upgrading it. OFFICIAL

05 UPGRADE BEFORE IT BREAKS

Upgrading resets the break chance. Get a few smashes out of each tier, then fold it into the next one. COMMUNITY

06 CLAIM ON THE HOUR

The free beetle resets at the top of the hour, not 60 minutes after you claim. 3:59 and 4:00 are both fair game. OBSERVED

07 CHECK BEFORE YOU SWING

The community recipe database at db.beetle.wiki looks up any three-item combo before you risk a sacrifice. COMMUNITY

08 PURPLE FOR PRECISION

The dev hinted that Purple sacrifices matter. Players use them for special smashes and tier-ups. UNVERIFIED

09 TIER BEATS SPECIES

Pond or Monarch, Goliath or Stag: for most recipes only the tier counts. Spend whichever you have more of. COMMUNITY

10 DON'T TRANSMUTE SPECIALS

Cucumber Beetles, Bumble Bees and Diamond beetles can't become flowers. Don't waste a sacrifice finding out. COMMUNITY

11 CRUNCH ALL JUNK

Loose junk does nothing until it's a cube. Two pieces make a cube, three cubes make a Tesseract, and every hammer upgrade needs one. COMMUNITY

12 PINS ARE PRECIOUS

You got one free Specimen Pin. More only drop rarely. Pin a beetle you're proud of. OFFICIAL

13 TEN CLICKS

The Cheeseman pays out on the tenth click, once a day, after the cheese reset. OFFICIAL

14 REROLL, DON'T RE-HUNT

A Tesseract plus a flower rerolls it into another flower of the same tier, which is handy for landing Pincushion and Gazania. COMMUNITY

DATABASE ANTI-RECIPES

DON'T TRY THIS AT HOME

FIELD NOTES

Three Daisies? "GAAAAAAYYYYY!!!", per the wiki log. Smashing flowers with Junk Cubes doesn't work, and nothing turns a flower back into a beetle. Diamond beetles can't be smashed back into flowers either. If you find a new dead end, add it to beetle.wiki's AntiRecipes page.

BEETLEBOY

REMILIANET · BROWSER · REMILIA CORPORATION · RELEASED SEPT 2025 · BEETLECRAFT DEC 2025 · RATED B FOR BEETLES

A cheese-powered collect-a-thon grows up into one of the most secretive crafting systems on the internet.

On paper, BeetleBoy is a chore wheel: claim a beetle, claim some cheese, come back in an hour. In practice it's one of the most charming loops on the web, mostly thanks to its art. Every species has a beetle girl drawn in pen and marker, every item a scientific name, and every junk tile a one-line joke ("Cigarette Butt: The cure.").

BeetleCraft is where it gets serious. Two benches, five hammers, a sacrifice altar and zero documentation turn a gacha collection into a puzzle box. Remilia's refusal to publish recipes is the boldest design decision here. It created a wiki overnight, a recipe database, fan-made front ends and a chat full of theorycrafters. It also means newcomers will smash Griggers into nothing for a while.

The risk systems are well judged. Failed valid recipes return your ingredients, Assemble never punishes a guess, hammer grace and the daily reset take the sting out of bad luck, and the pity counters keep "green hell" short. What's missing is any in-game memory: there's no journal of recipes you've already found, and break chances are explained only by a percentage.

If you're here for the beetle girls, you'll stay for the hunt for a Mars Rhino. Just mind the hammer.

THE GOOD

- Gorgeous, cohesive art direction
- Discovery-driven crafting that builds community
- Generous safety nets: refunds, grace, pity

THE BAD

- No recipe journal or odds display
- Smash losses can sting early on
- Some timers are hard to read in-game

THE VERDICT

8.5

OUT OF 10

CONCEPT
A gacha idle game disguised as a Y2K handheld, bolted onto a social network. It shouldn't work. It does.

GRAPHICS
The oekaki beetle girls are the best art on any social platform, full stop. The diegetic console is a love letter to the Game Boy.

SOUND
Cartridge clunks, cash-register clicks, catch chimes and ambient loops sell the toy fantasy.

PLAYABILITY
Drag-and-drop crafting is slick. No in-game recipe log is a choice, and you'll feel it every time you lose a Purple.

ENTERTAINMENT
The hourly claim is a gentle habit; BeetleCraft is the hook. Discovering a recipe with friends is genuinely thrilling.

REPLAY VALUE
High

Opinion piece. These scores aren't from Remilia.

2	FORGE A TIN HAMMER Two cubes. Smash mode is now open.		9 CUBES
3	FIRST SMASH: A BRONZE FLOWER A Bronze beetle (Ladybug, Purple or Cucumber) + Junk Cube, Tin Hammer, Green sacrifice. It's a grace craft, so no wear. If it says SMASH FAILED, retry.	BRONZE BEETLE + → BRONZE FLOWER	8 CUBES
4	FORGE THE BEETLEBOY KEY Bronze flower + Junk Cube, then drag the key onto the padlock. Slot 3 is open forever.	BRONZE FLOWER + →	7 CUBES
5	PRESS 2 TIN POLLEN Pair up four Tin flowers (Daisy, Sunflower, Poppy, Petunia, Snapdragon or Carnation).	TIN FLOWER + TIN FLOWER → ×2	7 CUBES
6	WIN YOUR FIRST TROPHY Two Junk Cubes + Tin Pollen. The first success is a Chinese Coin Trophy for your shelf.		5 CUBES
7	BUILD A TESSERACT Three cubes into one Junk Tesseract.		2 CUBES
8	UPGRADE TO BRONZE Tin Hammer + Tesseract + Tin Pollen gives +5% crafting bonus and half the wear.		2 CUBES
9	RE-FORGE A SPARE TIN HAMMER You can own one of each tier, so keep a cheap Tin Hammer for low-stakes smashes.		0 CUBES
10	PIN A SPECIMEN If you have a Specimen Pin: Pin + any beetle. Pick a species you have spares of, and keep Mithril beetles for crafting.	+ ANY BEETLE →	0 CUBES

SHOPPING LIST

- JUNK 22 loose junk (11 Junk Cubes)
- TIN FLOWER 4 Tin flowers (2 Tin Pollen)
- BRONZE BEETLE 1 Bronze beetle Ladybug, Purple or Cucumber
- A few Green Beetles one per smash, plus spares for retries
- Specimen Pin optional, for step 10

IF A SMASH FAILS

"SMASH FAILED" means the recipe is right: you lose the sacrifice but keep your ingredients, so retry. "NOTHING HAPPENED" means the recipe changed. Check beetle.wiki.

WHY THIS ORDER

The key comes first because the trophy, the Tesseract and the Bronze Hammer are all three-item recipes. The spare Tin Hammer comes last so the upgrade can use your first one.

GLOSSARY

ASSEMBLE The no-risk bench: junk, flowers, hammers, trinkets.

SMASH The risky bench: beetles, needs a hammer and a sacrifice.

SACRIFICE A Green or Purple Beetle spent on every smash.

GRIGGER Player slang for the Green Beetle.

JUNK CUBE Two loose junk, assembled.

TESSERACT Three Junk Cubes. Hammer and trinket fuel.

POLLEN Two same-tier flowers, assembled.

ARTIFACT Smash-only stepping stones: Nectar, Cattail, Pinecone, Moss, Gunpowder.

TRANSMUTE Beetle + Junk Cube → random flower of that tier.

TIER-UP Two of a tier → one of the next. Low odds.

HYPER ROLL Two Tesseracts gambled for a mystery item.

GRACE CRAFT A new hammer's first craft, which costs no durability.

PITY COUNTER Odds improve the longer you go without a rare hit.

UBC Universal Basic Cheese, the daily claim.

JUNK FAUCET The Cheeseman's daily freebie.

TROPHY Shelf display. The first craft of a trinket recipe.

TRINKET Repeat crafts of a trophy recipe; used as an ingredient.

SLOT 3 The padlocked crafting slot. Opened by the BeetleBoy Key.

The state includes your xp, level, inventory (item key → count), cooldowns (milliseconds remaining for catchBeetle, claimUBC and junkFaucet), hunt charges used, cheese shields, whether slot 3 is unlocked, and each hammer's break_rate, base_break_rate, craft_count and craft_bonus. OFFICIAL

The public API is read-only. The website itself drives the game through internal actions named catchBeetle, beetleHunt, claimUBC, junkFaucet, craft and unlockCraftingSlot3. They're undocumented and could change at any time. OFFICIAL

Internally, rarity runs from 1 (Junk) to 7 (Trophy), and items fall into eleven categories: cheese, beetle, junk, hammer, flower, artifact, unique, trinket, trophy and shelf, plus an invalid placeholder. OFFICIAL
